Vendor and exhibitor rules and regulations

All applications must be received no later than July 13, 2026

All food, beverage and farm vendors must fill out and submit to York Region the York Region Vendor Application Form for Special Events. A copy of the above York Region Vendor Application form must be attached with this application. The Events Programmer is not responsible for submitting these forms to York Region Public Health on your behalf.

Exhibitor space will be reserved ahead of time. Your space can be viewed on the site map provided.

Exhibitors agree to confine their display to the table space provided. Banners or other signage may be hung at the approval of the Event Programmer and only if it does not interfere with surrounding booths. All display material must be listed on the application form.

Booths and displays must remain fully set up for the duration of the event. Exhibitors shall not remove or dismantle any part of their display during the event. Tear down and removal of all debris will take place after the end of the event starting at 5 p.m. until no later than 7 p.m.

Exhibitors/vendors will always maintain a reasonable standard of conduct and agree to abide by reasonable rules and regulations as determined by the Cultural Festival event team and the Town of Georgina.

Exhibitors/vendors must tend to and remain at their tables at all times.

The Cultural Festival event team along with the Town of Georgina are not responsible for any loss, damage or injuries occurred or suffered during the operation of the booth or display, within the area of the operation and event, nor does the Town of Georgina assume any liability or responsibility for financial loss of any kind.

For food vendors

Visit the Region of York Health Department website to fill out your form and submit. Once approval from the Health Department is obtained, that approval can then be sent to the Event Programmer at the Town of Georgina.

Insurance information

Applicant shall provide a minimum $2,000,000 liability insurance, including products and completed operations, naming the Corporation of the Town of Georgina, 26557 Civic Centre Rd., Keswick, ON L4P 3G1, as additional Insured. The vendors' insurance carriers and policy provisions must be acceptable to the Town of Georgina and must remain in effect for the duration of this event.
