October in Georgina is fall favourites and Halloween fun

Georgina, ON – October brings a magical feeling to Georgina, with crisp autumn air, colourful leaves and plenty of seasonal fun. From spooky Halloween adventures to family-friendly events, there is something for everyone to enjoy and celebrate the sights, sounds and flavours of fall.

Silver Screammers at the Stephen Leacock Theatre

Looking for a fun afternoon at the Stephen Leacock Theatre? Enjoy a free screening of Silver Screammers, a heartwarming documentary following a group of seniors as they create their own low-budget horror film. Check it out on Friday, Oct. 2 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and stay after the screening for a Q and A with co-producer Sean Cisterna. Free tickets available at Club 55 Keswick.

Georgina Animal Shelter Annual Adoption Open House and Silent Auction

Enjoy a fun-filled day at the Georgina Animal Shelter's Annual Adoption Open House and Silent Auction on Saturday, Oct. 3 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Come meet your potential new best friend and enjoy a variety of activities for the whole family including shelter tours, a barbecue, silent auction and more.

Georgina Senior Games

For more than 30 years, the Georgina Senior Games have brought the community together through fun and fitness. Whether you are a returning participant or trying an event for the first time, there is something for everyone to enjoy. Open to Georgina residents aged 55 and older, the games continue until Oct. 23. Visit georgina.ca/SeniorGames to register and learn more.

Halloween-themed workshops at Georgina Village Museum

Check out the Halloween-themed workshops at Georgina Village Museum throughout October. Discover the fascinating customs and etiquette surrounding death and remembrance in the Victorian era or check out spooky apothecary décor. Visit the museum's activity registration page to learn more about dates and times. Fees vary depending on the program.

Family Fright

Enjoy an evening of Halloween fun, family-friendly frights and spooky surprises at the annual Family Fright event on Saturday, Oct. 17, from 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Georgina Village Museum. Explore the haunted village, brave the spooky trail, enjoy the Monster Mash Dance Bash and take part in fun activities for the whole family. This year, children can also become Halloween detectives in the Great Missing Spell Book Mystery. Follow the clues hidden throughout the village to solve the mystery and find the missing spell book.

Halloween workshops at the Multi-Use Recreation Complex

Check out some fun Halloween workshops at the Multi-Use Recreation Complex. There is pumpkin fun where kids can get hands on with pumpkin carving, ghosts and goodies where the kids will enjoy making a creative Halloween craft, and enchanted stillness – a meditation, magic and movement workshop. Visit georgina.ca/programs for more information and to register.

Halloween Pool Haunt
