Fatal house fire in Keswick

Georgina, ON – At approximately 5 a.m., January 15, 2022, Georgina Fire and Rescue Services responded to a single dwelling fire at 351 Miami Drive in Keswick.

Upon arrival, the structure was fully engulfed. A single occupant of the home was discovered once the home was searched. Tragically, the individual lost their life.

“This is a terrible tragedy in our community and serves as a reminder that we all need to be checking our smoke alarms regularly,” said Fire Chief Ron Jenkins.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The Ontario Fire Marshals office will be leading the investigation along with investigators from Georgina Fire Services and York Regional Police.
