Conceptual Design – Exterior Views

Heritage Considerations

- Georgina Heritage Committee requested the site be considered as heritage site.
- The Town of Georgina requested a Heritage Impact Assessment be completed.
- A full Interpretative strategy was undertaken which produced a number of recommendations for the YRP Marine Facility.

Heritage Status Recommendations

- Enlarged reproductions of historic images be mounted on side of the building.
- An interpretative panel explaining the images, allowing for a method to tell the history of the area.
- Installation on the publicly accessible grounds adjacent of the building.

Construction Methodology

- Design Build Agreement with MSR/Lalu Jackson's Point Inc. to construct the new Marine Facility.
- Gillam Group Inc. is the Construction Manager for the project and is the "Constructor" under the Ministry of Labor Guidelines.
  - Adopted construction methodologies allowing for a streamlined design build process.
  - Focused on meeting the needs of YRP, while bringing best value to the project and meeting the Towns requirements.
  - Providing a state of the art facility to serve the residents and visitors to the community.

Safety of Site

- Gillam Group has an award-winning safety record and a stringent Safety Policy and Procedures.
- This project has some work over water and special procedures have been put in place to manage the work.
- All Trade contractors must adhere to these procedures prior to coming on site.

Safety First at all times!

Ministry of Natural Resources has approved Gilliam's methodology

Security of Site

- Lockable chain-link fence installed around the site
  - Locked at all times while personal are not on site.
- Boom and Filter Screen installed at the narrows
  - Keeps construction debris which may fall into the water within a secure area to allow for controlled clean up.
  - Keeps public from sailing into the site from the lake while construction is underway.

Ministry of Natural Resources has approved our methodology
