Town names new director of Operations and Infrastructure

Georgina, ON – The Town of Georgina is pleased to announce Rob Flindall as the new Director of Operations and Infrastructure.

“It is with great pleasure that we welcome Rob Flindall to the Town of Georgina. He brings more than 30 years of municipal experience in public works and municipal infrastructure,” said David Reddon, the Town’s Acting Chief Administrative Officer. “Rob exemplifies a commitment to public service, collaboration and leadership, and I know he will be a valuable addition to our senior management team.”

Mr. Flindall joins the Town of Georgina from the Regional Municipality of Halton and will take on the role of Director of Operations and Infrastructure. He will be responsible for leading the Operations and Infrastructure Department, including strategic leadership, management and administration of a broad operations portfolio including roads, fleet maintenance, parks, facilities, capital projects, public works, water and wastewater, and waste management.

Prior to joining Halton, Mr. Flindall was the Director of Public Works for the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville where he was responsible for providing leadership and strategic direction for all aspects of public works operations, municipal infrastructure construction and reconstruction projects.

Mr. Flindall also held positions with the Regional Municipality of Durham and the Town of Ajax where his responsibilities included engineering and public works, operations and maintenance, and waterworks. He also held senior level positions at King Township and the City of Markham.

A professional engineer, Mr. Flindall holds a bachelor of Environmental Studies with honours in geography from the University of Waterloo. He also has a master’s certificate in Municipal Leadership from the Schulich School of Business.

“While we are very excited to have Rob join our team. I would like to acknowledge the contributions and commitment of John Armstrong who has served as our Director of Operations and Infrastructure, bringing a wealth of knowledge and dedication to the position. We wish him the very best in retirement,” said David Reddon.

Mr. Flindall officially joins the Georgina team on May 6.
